

MEET OUR EDITOR

DR. SAMUEL ADARKWAH

Samuel is a dynamic dedicated and result- driven legal professional with extensive experience in both legal practice and academia. He is adept to providing expert legal counsel to clients while also imparting knowledge and fostering critical thinking skills as a lecturer.

Samuel draws a vast range of his experiences from both local and international legal practice and he is currently a senior partner at Owusu-Dapaa Law & Associates (law firm) in Kumasi, a lecturer at the Kwame Nkrumah University of Science and Technology, and a tutorial master, at the Ghana School of Law, Kumasi campus. He was also a lecturer at the Schulich school of law, Dalhousie University, Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada and a research assistant at Cornell Law School, Ithaca, N.Y. U.S.A.

Skilled in legal research, writing, negotiation, and advocacy in insolvency law, he has a pool of publications including upcoming book project on principles of insolvency law in Ghana, peer review articles and book chapters on Insolvency law in Ghana. He is a contributing member of the Research Network on Public Authorities and Financial Distress (RPAFD), an international report collaboration working on comparative perspective on the treatment of local authorities undergoing financial distress.

His editorial portfolio includes being a member of the editorial team of the KNUST law journal, a manuscript reviewer of the Commonwealth Law Bulletin and the content advisor of Dennis law online digital law resources.

Samuel holds a doctor of the Science of Law (J.S.D.) and a Master of Laws (LL.M) from the Cornell Law School, Ithaca, N.Y., U.S.A. He has qualifying certificate in law (OCL) (barrister's license) from the Ghana School of Law and a Bachelor of Laws (LL. B) from the Kwame Nkrumah University of Science and Technology

He is a member of a number of professional bodies including the Ghana Bar Association, the Ghana Association of Restructuring and Insolvency Advisors, Cornell university institute for African studies, Ithaca, N.Y. U.S.A. as well as the Center for Human Rights and Advanced Legal Research.